

MEDITATION

If this bright life can live once more
And its white promise be as before
Why cannot the great stone be moved from His door.

If the green grass ascend and shake
Year after year, and blossoms break
Again and again for April's sake.

Why cannot life from the dark and cold
Shine so again His manifold,
And glancing glory—a stream of gold.

Faint heart be sure these things must be,
See the new bud on the old tree;
If flowers can wake—Oh, why am I?

RESURRECTION LIFE

"Buried with Christ" and raised with Him, now;
What is there left for me to do?
Simply to cease from struggling and strife,
Simply to "walk in newness of life."

"Risen with Christ," my glorious Head,
Harkens now the path I tread.
Beautiful thought, while walking therein:
"He that is dead is freed from all sin."

Living with Christ, who "with no more,"
Following Christ, Who goes before;
I am from bondage utterly freed,
Reckoning self as now "dead indeed."

Living for Christ, my members I yield,
Surrender to God, for ever sealed,
"Not under law," I'm now "under grace;"
Sin is dethroned, and Christ takes its place.

Walking, I'm walking in newness of life,
Free from the struggle and fare from the strife;
Trusting and resting and trusting it done,
Dwelling, I'm dwelling, the battle is won.

—By PAUL RABIN.

"Enter His gates with thanksgiving. Come into His courts with praise."

6:30 P. M. Senior C. E. Society. All young people invited.
7:45 P. M. Treating Service. Let's make this a great service.

Tuesday Evening Prayer Fellowship at 8 o'clock. Keep the prayers ascending and blessings will come. Attend this service and enjoy the singing. Bring your prayer requests. Offer a testimony. It's a meeting that is worthy of your support. Rev. Dr. Johnson in charge.

There never was a time when the loyal support of our membership and friends was needed more than right now. Is it asking too much for faithful attendance at all the services as far as possible. Be most systematic giving toward its support, interest in our expressions, gracious in our praise, above all to ever keep the honor of our church paramount.

It has often been asked, and we repeat, if every member was just like me, what kind of a church would my church be. Just what we make it.

Our thanks are extended to all who have helped in our Centennial Fund. If you have not shared in this undertaking, will you do so without delay.

Church support is entirely through the free-will offerings of the people. Endeavors are provided for weekly contributions and every member of Central Church should have and use them to contribute to Church Expenses and Bursaries. Use both sides of the envelope. Receive a check. Devote one-third of your income to the Lord, and you will always have something to give to help good causes. God will prosper you, too.

In case of sickness or if the services of a minister are needed, call Rev. Dr. F. W. Johnson, Moderator of our church, H.C. 2-4754, or Mr. George F. Lingenfelter, S. O. 2-4754, or notify any officer of the church.

Our thanks are extended to the Choir and Mr. Clifford F. Scherer for their very fine music today.

On Monday evening, March 29, all young people are cordially invited to attend an Ecumenical Service, by young people of our Presbytery, at the Old First Church, Newark, at 8 o'clock. Admission free.

Next Sunday, April 4th, at 10:45, Rev. Walter Barton Greenway, D.D., LL.D., President of Beaver College for Women, one of the largest colleges for women in the United States, will occupy our pulpit. This will be a rare privilege. We are very fortunate indeed to have one of the great leaders of our great church. Dr. Greenway is one of our outstanding men in work among young people. Let's greet him with a large attendance.

7:45 P. M. We will have the Rainbow Girls, Assembly No. 1, of Newark as our guests. Rev. F. W. Johnson, D.D., presiding.

A welcome to all who are strangers and visitors. Central Church gladly offers you its worship and fellowship. We hope you enjoy both.
